

Distributive Property of Multiplication

The property which states that when two addends are multiplied by a factor, the product is the same as when each addend is multiplied by the factor and those products are added.

Example: $(2 + 3) \times 4 = (2 \times 4) + (3 \times 4)$