

common denominator

Any common multiple of the denominators of two or more factors.

Example: The fractions $\frac{2}{4}$ and $\frac{3}{4}$ have 4 as a common denominator.