

Unit D Overview

Polygons and Circles

IN UNIT D, students construct and find the perimeter of polygons. Through guided exploration, they generalize what they have learned about polygons to develop an understanding of circles and the relationship of their diameter to their circumference. Students also extend their understanding of circles to allow them to read and understand circle graphs. Students apply their skills in adding and subtracting decimals to calculate elapsed time and total time.

